

FID

--

DATE: 25X1

DIST. ~~30~~ December 1947

PAGES

SUPPLEMENT : 50 8039

DESCRIPTION

[illegible]

2. Following recent changes, the Soviet Air Force is now represented in Bulgaria by an Air Corps of two Air Divisions with six Air Regiments. The total number of aircraft is believed to be about 300. The Air Corps is believed to have a third Air Division located at Odessa and is itself reported to be under the command of the Seventeenth Army which has its headquarters in Constanta.

2. Locations:

Army Air Corps

Hq Plovdiv

Air Division (Fighter ?)

Flordiv

Regiment (Fighter ?)

Plowdiv (Graf Ignatiev)

Regiment (Fighter ?)

Floudin (Graf Ignatjef)

Regiment (Fighter ?)

Stara Zagora

Air Division (Mixed ?)

Tambo1

Fighter Regiment

Yambo!

Regiment (unidentified)

Yambol

Light Bomber Regiment (PR 2)

Dobric

3. An unknown number of aircraft has also arrived at the Graf Ignatief airfield from Hungary.

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50, U.S.C. 31 and 32 as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

מתי:

CONFIDENTIAL

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
Next Review Date: 2008

Document No.

NO CHANGE in Class

~~DECLASSIFIED~~

Class. CHANGED TO: TS

DDA Memo, 4 Apr

Auth: DDA REG. 77/1563

Date: 27 Feb 78 By

Approved For Release 2006/02/06 : CIA-RDP82-00457R001100870006-2